Autore	Walker George <1581?-1651.>
Titolo	The doctrine of the Sabbath [[electronic resource]] : wherein the first institution of the vveekly Sabbath, with the time thereof, the nature of the law binding man to keepe it, the true grounds, and necessity of the first institution, and of the observation of it, on the severall day in the Old Testament, and also of the removing of it to the first day under the Gospell, are laid open and proved out of the Holy Scriptures. Also besides the speciall duties necessarily required for the due sanctification thereof, these two profitable points are proved by demonstrations out of Gods word. First, that the Lord Christ, God & man, is the Lord of the Sabbath, on whom the Sabbath was first founded ... 2. That the faithfull vnder the Gospel are as necessarily bound to keep the weekly Sabbath of the Lords day ... as the Fathers vnder the law were bound to keep the seventh day. Deliverd in divers sermons by George Walker B. of Divinity and pastor of St. John Evangelists Church in London
