

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391158403316
Titolo	The cleere sense: or, A just vindication of the late ordinance of Parliament; [[electronic resource]] : forbidding persons not ordained, or not allowed of, as intending the ministry, to preach, from such malignant interpretations as some ill-affected labour to fasten on it, therby to authorize their opposition against those other most warrantable duties of expounding scriptures, mutuall edification, &c. which the scriptures do require of every Christian within his own sphear and relations. Which may also serve for an usefull caution to those gentlemen of the magistracy, souldiery & committees in the severall towns, garrisons, places of strength, cities, counties, throughtout the kingdome, to whom the said ordinance is respectively recommended by both Houses of Parliament. Published according to order
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed by M. Simmons, 1645
Descrizione fisica	[4], 11, [1] p
Soggetti	Clergy - Office Preaching - Legal status,laws,etc
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes the ordinance, dated 26 April 1645. Annotation on Thomason copy: "May 8th". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018