

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391184203316
Titolo	The resolution of the valiant Danes, who have transported an army of 6000. men to defend the King and Parliament against the cavaliers [[electronic resource]] : And to establish peace in this kingdom, having brought an ambassador with them to signifye unto the Parliament their iust and goodintents, and are now landed at Newcastle. Also how Sr. Iohn Hotham, at their first arrivall tooke their money and iewels and hath sent them up to the Parliament, with the valiant resolution of the Lady Sanders, who to revenge the death of her husband and Colonell Douglas slain at Worcester battaile, hath raised also a great army, intending in person to ioyne with the Scots against the cavaleers, who are sending over 10000. armed men to assist the Parliament
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London], : Printed for H. Watson and W. Cook, Novemb. 24. [1642]
Descrizione fisica	[2], 5, [1] p
Soggetti	Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Early works to 1800 Denmark Foreign relations Great Britain Early works to 1800 Great Britain Foreign relations Denmark Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Place and year of publication from Wing. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018