

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNISA996391190303316 |
| Autore | Whetcombe Tristram |
| Titolo | A sad relation of the miseries of the province of Munster in the realm of Ireland [[electronic resource]] : signified by letters written from thence very lately, by a gentleman of good credit, to his brother here in London. By which it doth appear, in what imminent danger that province now is for to be lost, and how numerous the rebels now are there gathered together in their siege of Youghall, with a discovery of their barbarous and cruell usage to those English they take prisoners |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | London, : Printed by G. Miller, 1645 |
| Descrizione fisica | [2], 5, [1] p |
| Soggetti | Ireland History 1625-1649 Early works to 1800 Munster (Ireland) History Early works to 1800 |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | A gentleman of good credit = Tristram Whetcombe, whose name appears at end of text. Annotation on Thomason copy: "Aug: 4th". Reproduction of the original in the British Library. |
| Sommario/riassunto | eebo-0018 |