Titolo

Englands thankes: or, A message of thankes [[electronic resource]] : (delivered by Guild-Hall) from our Mother England to all her true hearted children that have been any way assistant to the Parliament in maintaining the honour of the King, the true re[!]ligion, liberty of the subject and priviledges of Parliament. With a caveat to the vulgars, that they speake not immodestly of the king, and envie not his person, but leave all things to be controverted by the grave and wise Parliament, and leave the issue to God. Ordered to be forthwith printed and published. B. R
