

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391271103316
Autore	Hume Alexander, schoolmaster
Titolo	A diduction of the true and catholik meaning of our Sauieur his words [[electronic resource] ] : this is my bodie, in the institution of his laste Supper through the ages of the Church from Christ to our owne daies. Whereunto is annexed a reply to M. William Reynolds in defence of M. Robert Bruce his arguments in this subiect: and displaying of M. Iohn Hammiltions ignorance and contradictions: with sundry absurdities following vpon the Romane interpretation of these words. Compiled by Alexander Hume Maister of the high schoole of Edinburgh
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Edinburgh, : Printed by Robert Waldegraue, printer to the Kings Maiestie, 1602
Descrizione fisica	[14], 118 p
Soggetti	Lord's Supper - Church of England Lord's Supper - Real presence
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	A reply to John Hamilton's "Ane Catholik and facile traictise", and his "A facile traictise, contenand, first: ane infallible reul to discern trew from fals religion" and also to William Rainolds' "A treatise conteyning the true catholike and apostolike faith of the holy sacrifice and sacrament ordeyned by Christ at his last Supper". Reproduction of the original in the University of Edinburgh. Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0046