

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391319703316
Autore	Crawshey John
Titolo	The country mans instructor. Or, A briefe and plaine method of intelligence [[electronic resource]] : containing many experienced remedies for the diseases commonly befalling to horses, sheepe, and other cattle. With an admirable and safe way of gelding or spaying, both of male and female. Not collected out of the uncertainty of other mens writhings, but gathered from the many yeares experience of the author Iohn Cravvshay, of Sandall Magna in the county of Yorke. Approved by the testimony of divers worthy gnetlemen, both knights and esquires, in the counties of Yorke and Lincolne, set forth for the benefit of the whole common wealth of Great Brittaine
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed by Thomas Cotes, and are to be sold by M. Allot, at the signe of the blacke Beare in Pauls Church-yard, 1636
Descrizione fisica	[10], 34, [1] p
Soggetti	Veterinary medicine
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Some leaves tightly bound. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018