Note generali	The "Eikoìn basilikeì" was originally attributed to Charles I, but, according to Madan (p. 125-33), was written by John Gauden, who probably included some authentic writings of the King. This compilation of excerpts has been attributed to a Dr. Hooker. The numerals I-III and the words "Theological. .. Political." are bracketed together on title page; the words "Eikon basilike" are in Greek characters. Running title reads: Apophthegmata Carolina. The last leaf is blank. Mostly the same setting of type as the version appended to Wing E305A; the page and line references have been reset. Annotation on Thomason copy: "Octob: 6." Reproductions of the originals in the British Library (Thomason Tracts) and in the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery (Early English books). Thomason Tracts: p. 50-51 not filmed.
