Autore	Jones Philip <fl. 1589.>
Titolo	Certaine sermons preached of late at Ciceter, in the countie of Glocester [[electronic resource]] : vpon a portion of the first chapter of the Epistle of Iames: wherein the two seuerall states, of the riche and poore man are compared and examined, the differences in quality, and duety betwixt them shewed, both directed to such Christian parts and offices, as the sufficiencie of the one may, and ought to performe, and the wants of the other do necessarily require. Penned at the earnest requests of diuers well affected inhabitantes of the place: and now published as wel for the vse of others, as for the further profit of that particular congregation. By Philip Iones, preacher of the word of God in the same towne. Allowed by authoritie
