

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNISA996391459303316 |
| Autore | Henrietta Maria, Queen, consort of Charles I, King of England, <1609-1669.> |
| Titolo | The Queens Majesties message and letter from the Hague in Holland, directed to the Kings most excellent Majesty, &c [[electronic resource]] : being sent in that ship which was forced to put in at Yarmouth by reason of a leake which she sprung at sea, and was bound for Newcastle, who had in her fifty commanders, besides other common souldiers, 400. barrels of powder, ten peeces of ordnance, and great store of other armes and ammunition, all which was sent to his Majesty. And now comming up to London to be disposed of by the Parliament for the kingdomes safety and security, which letter, with divers others, are in the custody of - Henry Elsing Cler. P. Dom. Com. All which letters were cast over-board into the sea, and miraculously saved by a sailor in the said ship. Also the declaration and petition of the Palsgrave and the Queene his mother to both houses of Parliament for their annuall pension, with all denying and disclaiming in having any hand or consent in Prince Roberts unruly actions, against the Parliament |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | London, : printed for I. Vnderhill, Octob. 14. [1642] |
| Descrizione fisica | [2], 8 [i.e. 6] p |
| Altri autori (Persone) | Karl Ludwig, Elector Palatine, <1617-1680.> Elizabeth, Queen, consort of Frederick I, King of Bohemia, <1596-1662.> |
| Soggetti | Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Sources Early works to 1800 |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | Year of publication from Thomason Coll. Page 6 has been misnumbered 8. Reproduction of the original in the British Library. |
| Sommario/riassunto | eebo-0018 |