

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391546303316
Titolo	His Maiesties speech at Leicester, to the gentlemen, freeholders, and inhabitants of that county [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Imprinted at Yorke, and re-printed at London, : by Alice Norton, 1642
Descrizione fisica	1 sheet ([1] p.)
Altri autori (Persone)	Charles, King of England, <1600-1649.>
Soggetti	Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Early works to 1800 Leicestershire (England) History Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Royal arms with initials at head of title. He had come to Leicester to remove any misunderstandings there. He has sent such propositions for peace and accommodation to Parliament as should make them submit. If they do not the King relies on them to support him and the old-established laws .. -- Steele. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018