

| | |
|-------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNISA996391554803316 |
| Autore | Foster George |
| Titolo | The pouring forth of the seventh and last viall upon all flesh and fleshliness, which will be a terror to the men that have great possessions. Or several visions which hath bin made out to me of what the all of all things is now bringing to pass [[electronic resource]] : that so the root of al malice, strife, hatred, and war may be digged up, and the only way for universal love and freedom to all sorts of people to brought in; but in a more especial manner, and higher and most glorious discovery of God to his peculiar people, whom all of all things will make praise of the whole Earth. / / George Foster, otherwise Jacob Israel |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | [London, : s.n.], Printed in the yeer MDCL. [1650] |
| Descrizione fisica | [12], 68 p |
| Soggetti | Prophecies Visions Great Britain Politics and government 1649-1660 |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | Annotation on Thomason copy: "Nou: 15". Reproduction of the original in the British Library. |
| Sommario/riassunto | eebo-0018 |