

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391563103316
Autore	Downame John <d. 1652.>
Titolo	Four treatises [[electronic resource] ] : tending to dissuade all Christians from foure no less hainous then common sinnes; namely, the abuses of swearing, drunkenesse, whoredome, and briberie. Wherein the greatnes and odiousnesse of these vices is discovered; and the meanes and remedies; which may either preserue, or weane men from them, are propounded. Whereunto is annexed a treatise of anger. // By Iohn Downname batcheler in diuinitie, and preacher of Gods word
Pubbl/distr/stampa	At London, : imprinted by Felix Kyngston, for William Welby, and are to be sold at his shop in Pauls Church-yard at the signe of the Greyhound, 1608
Descrizione fisica	[10], 235, [7], 82 p
Altri autori (Persone)	DownameJohn <d. 1652.>
Soggetti	Swearing Alcoholism Prostitution Bribery Anger
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	In two parts; "A treatise of anger", originally published in 1600 as "Spiritual physicke to cure to diseases of the soule, arising from superfluitie of choller, prescribed out of Gods word", has separate pagination, register, and title page with imprint: London: printed by T. E[ast]. for William Welby, dwelling in Paules-Church-yard at the signe of the Grayhound. 1609. Since East was dead by 7 November 1608, the title page to part 2 is apparently post dated. Printer's name from STC. The first leaf is blank. Imperfect: item at reel 1136:2 is part 2 only. Reproductions of originals in the University of Virginia Library and Christ Church Library, Oxford.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0026

