

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391569003316
Autore	Dewsbury William <1621-1688.>
Titolo	The mighty day of the Lord, is coming [[electronic resource]] : In which, Christ is exalting King upon the holy hill of Sion, over all the world to reign, who in this day of the Lord knocks at the door of the heart of Jew and Gentile, kindreds, tongues, people and nations, who desires to know the onely true God, and Christ Jesus whom he hath sent to be the light of the world, and salvation to the ends of the earth, to all that obey him; but a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence to all that reject his counsel, whom he will take in their own craft, and overturn in their own devices to the shame and confusion of their faces; but they that believe in him, shall never be ashamed. The word of the Lord to all the faithful scattered in the world, that in the counsel of the Lord stands to strengthen the desires raised towards his name, them to give victory over the world. A warning to all that dwell upon the earth, and to the kings, princes, and rulers in the world, to submit to Christ the light of the world, lest they perish in the day of his fierce wrath, when the hearts of all that disobey him, do fall before him. / / From the common goal in Northampton, the 7 day of the 11 month, 1655. Given forth by him the world knows by name, William Dewsbury, at the writing of this, prisoner for the word of God, and testimony of Jesus Christ
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed for Giles Calvert, at the Black-spread-Eagle at the west-end of Pauls, 1656
Descrizione fisica	[2], 6 p
Soggetti	Christian life
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "Jan: 12 1655". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018