

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391778103316
Autore	P. N
Titolo	The last nevves from the Prince of Wales [[electronic resource]] : declaring His further proceedings against the Par- [sic] Parliaments forces, and Captain Battens joyning with his Highnesse, with 5000. men from Holland. And another great and bloody fight between his Highnesse forces, and the Parliaments; with the number killed and taken, the manner of the fight, and how the Princes foot routed Col. Rich his horse, and put them to a disorderly retreat, by throwing wild-fire, & granadoes amongst them, which they carried on the end of thier pikes. Also, the firing of the guards belonging to the Parliaments forces by the princes foot, and above 100. slain upon the place near Deal Towns-end. Likewise, a discovery of the resolution of divers of the inhabitants of Sandwich, to rise for the King, with spades, mattocks, felling-axes, spits, and pitchforks, to beat out the Parliaments forces, and to seize on the town for the Prince
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : [s.n.], Printed Anno Dom. 1648
Descrizione fisica	[2], 5, [1] p
Altri autori (Persone)	PorterHen WestW. <fl. 1648.>
Soggetti	Royalists - England - 17th century Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Signed at the bottom of p.4: P.N. "The last news from the two armies of England and Scotland," is dated and signed at the bottom of p.[6]: Lan. 17. Aug. 1648. Hen. Porter, W. West. Annotation on Thomason copy: "Aug ye 21th". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018