

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391779803316
Autore	Stirrup Thomas
Titolo	The description and use of the universall quadrat [[electronic resource]] : By which is performed, with great expedition, the whole doctrine of triangles, both plain and sphericall, two severall wayes with ease and exactness. Also the resolution of such propositions as are most usefull in astronomie, navigation, and dialling. By which is also performed the proportioning of lines and superficies: the measuring of all manner of land, board, glasse; timber, stone. &c. // By Thomas Stirrup, Philomathemat
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed by R. & W. Leybourn, for Tho. Pierrpont, at the Sun in Pauls Church-yard, 1655
Descrizione fisica	[8], 212 p., plates
Soggetti	Astronomy Dialing Geometry Navigation Trigonometry
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotations on Thomason copy: "Jan. 12. 1654"; the final '5' in the imprint has been crossed out. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018