

1. Record Nr.

UNISA996391805203316

Titolo

A true coppie of divers letters, sent from the governors of Ireland, to the Parliament in England [[electronic resource]] : desiring their speedy ayd for the supply. Wherein is declared the revolting of divers counties to the rebels, who are come within 4. miles of Dublin, where they prevent much relieve, cattell and provision from comming to the city. With the substance of a proclamation published by the rebels, who expect ayd from forraine parts. With the message from them sent to the Kings Majesty by the Lord Dillon, for a toleration of their religion, and the Parliaments answer thereto, with a description of the Earle of Essex, with his forces to be the subduer of them

Pubbl/distr/stampa

[London], : Printed for Samuell Horten, 1641

Descrizione fisica

[8] p

Altri autori (Persone)

Cragge John, Gent

Soggetti

Ireland History Rebellion of 1641 Early works to 1800

Lingua di pubblicazione

Inglese

Formato

Materiale a stampa

Livello bibliografico

Monografia

Note generali

Portrait of the Earl of Essex on title page.
"To the honorable and truly noble Robert Earle of Essex, Lord Chamberlaine, &c" in verse, signed: John Crag, Gent.
Reproduction of the original in the British Library.

Nota di contenuto

The proceedings in the high court of Parliament, concerning Ireland --
To the honorable and truly noble Robert Earle of Essex, Lord Chamberlaine, &c.

Sommario/riassunto

eebo-0018