

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNISA996391815603316 |
| Autore | Harris John <active 1647.> |
| Titolo | The grand designe [[electronic resource]] : or A discovery of that forme of slavery, intended, and in part brought upon the free people of England; by a powerfull party in the Parliament : and L. G. Crumwell, Commissary Gen. Ireton, and others of that facton [sic] in the Army; tending to the utter ruine, and enslaving of the whole nation. With the true grounds of the Kings removall to the Isle of Wight. Also the pretended designe of levelling refuted, and cleared from those false aspersions lately cast upon the authors and promoters of the Peoples Agreement. // Written by Sirrahniho, not an invective, but moderate and impartiall observer of the transactions of the Parliament and Army [London, : s.n.], Printed in the last yeare of Englands slavery, 1647 |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | |
| Descrizione fisica | [16] p |
| Soggetti | Levellers Great Britain Politics and government 1642-1649 Early works to 1800 |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | Sirrahniho = John Harris. Place of publication from Wing. Signatures: A-B. Imperfect: print show-through. Annotation on Thomason copy: "Decemb: 8". Reproduction of the original in the British Library. |
| Sommario/riassunto | eebo-0018 |