

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391829703316
Titolo	A great victorie in the North [[electronic resource]] : obtained by the forces under the command of Lieutenant Generall Cromwel, against Duke Hamilton, and the Scottish army. Wherein is declared, the manner of the late fight near the confines of York, the routing of Lieutenant Generall Cromwells forces upon the first onset, and after three miles pursuit (by the Scots) rallied again, fell upon the Scottish forces, killed Duke Hamiltons Lieutenant Collonel, a Major, divers Captains, officers, and souldiers, routed the whole body, and regained their ground. Also another fight near Pomfret castle in Yorkshire, a defeat given to the Parliaments forces, and divers taken prisoners, and carryed to the said castle. Whereunto is annexed, an humble petition to the Kings most Excellent Majesty, concerning the King and his people, and every subject in particuler of this his kingdom of England
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for the wel-fare and happinesse of all true and loyall subjects, Anno Dom. 1648
Descrizione fisica	[2], 5, [1] p
Altri autori (Persone)	R. F
Soggetti	Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes a letter "To the Kings most Excellent Majesty." Signed on p.[6]: R.F. Annotation on Thomason copy: "Aug: 8th". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018