Titolo	A plea for congregational government: or, A defence of the Assemblies petition, against Mr. John Saltmarsh [[electronic resource] ] : Wherein is plainly discovered, that in his reasons against the divine right of Presbytery, under pretence of opposing the Assemblies petition, he doth as much oppose the congregational way, and goes about utterly to overthrow all church-government, ministry, baptisme, and all church-ordinances whatsoever; and wholly to subvert the authority of the civill magistrate in all matters of religion. And, the Assemblies petition vindicated from his exceptions, by principles common both to the Presbyterian and the congregational way; there being nothing in that petition but what is agreeable to the principles of both wayes.
