

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391895003316
Autore	Gould John, prisoner at Hertford
Titolo	A cal [sic] and a vvarning, to all priests, professors and people, vwho have and do profess the Scriptures [[electronic resource]] : that they may try their doctrines and practises by it, and may own condemnation in their doctrines and practises, wherein they are contrary to the Scriptures. And a tender visitation to the whole vworld, that they may own this their visitation, and may be healed and restored to the Lord; and this may serve for a looking glass, wherein people may see what visage they are of, and how they stand related as unto God. // By a sufferer in Hartford goale, for faithful witness-bearing, against this sinful generation; known by the name of John Gould
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed for Thomas Simmons at the Bull and Mouth near Aldersgate, 1657
Descrizione fisica	[2], 31, 34-35, [1] p
Soggetti	Society of Friends Christian life - Quaker authors
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "Dec: 20:". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018