

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391908703316
Titolo	The afflicted Christian justified [[electronic resource] ] : In a letter to Mr. Thomas Havves, an honest and godly man, and known freind to his country, now prisoner for supposed blasphemy in Winchester-House, in Southwarke. With a letter from Mr. Thomas Hawes to Mr. Farthing; wherein hee remonstrates to the whole kingdome the arbitrary insolenties, and High-Commission proceedings of the said Farthing, together with his confederates, against the native freedoms and birthrights of the whole free-borne people of England
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : [s.n.], Printed 18. May, 1646
Descrizione fisica	[2], 18 p
Altri autori (Persone)	HawesThomas, of Southwark WalwynWilliam <1600-1681, >
Soggetti	Detention of persons - England Blasphemy
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Sometimes attributed to William Walwyn; attribution rejected by McMichael and Taft, The writings of William Walwyn, p.528-9. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018