

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391979403316
Autore	Penington Isaac <1616-1679.>
Titolo	The fundamental right, safety and liberty of the people (which is radically in themselves, derivatively in the Parliament, their substitutes or representatives) briefly asserted [[electronic resource] ] : Wherein is discovered the great good or harm which may accrue unto the people by Parliaments, according to their different temperature and motions. Together with some proposals conducing towards an equal and just settlement of the distracted state of this nation. As likewise a touch at some especial properties of a supream good governor or governors. // By Isaac Penington (junior) Esq; The safety of the people is the supream, most natural and most righteous law, being both the most proper end and most adequate rule of government
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed by John Macock, and are to be sold by Giles Calvert at the west end of Pauls, 1651
Descrizione fisica	[16], 38 p
Soggetti	Great Britain History Politics and government 1642-1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "May. 15th". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018