Autore	Cheesman Christopher
Titolo	Berk-shires agent's humble address to the honourable Commissioners for compounding [[electronic resource] ] : Being a true relation and discovery of the unfaithful actings of Tho. Bateman, Edw. Jenings, & Jo. Rusden, in relation to the trust to them committed in the county of Berks, whereof they are sub-commissioners for managing the sequestrations therein. Whereunto is annexed an extract of all the orders, ordinances and Acts of Parliament, from April 1. 1643. to this day, giving instructions in and about sequestrations, and commanding obedience from all therein employed. All which the said Commissioners have contemned and trampled upon as also their oath; as will clearly appear be a true and perfect narrative (hereunto added) of their words and actions in and about the sequestrations, tending to the dishonor of the Parliament, and very great disservice of this Commonwealth. // Drawn up in behalf and for the good of this Commonwealth, by Christopher Cheesman, with an epistle to the sincere and single-hearted people in Berk-shire
