

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996391996603316
Autore	Howgill Francis <1618-1669.>
Titolo	A lamentation for the scattered tribes, who are exiled into captivity, and are now mingled among the heathen, and are joyned to the oppressor, and refuses to return [[electronic resource] ] : Presented unto all the separated congregations, under what name or form soever, in love to the lost. Shewing, the difference betwixt them that were separated by the word of faith, and them who have separated themselves, in imitation from the letter: ... // By a servant of truth, and a friend to righteousness, who suffers with the seed, which is held in oppression, waiting and labouring for its return; called Francis Howgill
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for Giles Calvert, at the Black-spread-Eagle at the west end of Pauls., 1656
Descrizione fisica	[4], 20, 23-37, [1] p
Soggetti	Society of Friends - Doctrines
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "Aug: 5th". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018