

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392019303316
Autore	Brooks Thomas <1608-1680.>
Titolo	The hypocrite detected, anatomized, impeached, arraigned, and condemned before the Parliament of England. Or, a word in season [[electronic resource]] : Shewing hypocrites to be the prime objects of Gods wrath; and the grounds of it: with speciall lessons that we are to learn from it. // Expressed in a sermon preached before the Parliament of England, upon their last thanksgiving day, being the 8th of Octob. 1650. for the late great victory that the Lord of Hosts gave our army over the Scots army in a battell at Dunbarr: Septemb. 3. 1650. By Thomas Brooks, a weak and unworthy teacher of the Gospel at Thomas Apostles London
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed by Fr : Neile for Hanna Allen at the Crown in Popes-head-Alley, 1650
Descrizione fisica	[8], 23, [1] p
Soggetti	Sermons, English - 17th century Hypocrisy
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	With a preliminary order to print dated: 9 Oct. 1650. Annotation on Thomason copy: "Oct. 4". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018