Note generali	Often attributed to William Basse or Edward Pond; this attribution, however, is doubtful. Also attributed to Edward Phillips; this attribution is impossible as Phillips born after the first edition. This edition does not include "Sphinx and Oedipus". Page 203 [i.e. 213] is a separate dated title page, reading: The country- mans counsellor. Or a necessary addition to this yeerely oracle, or prognostication. Calculated by art, as a tutor for their helpe, that otherwise buy more than they understand. Beginning with this yeere of our Lord God, 1636. .. By E.P. Philomathem. Printers' names and edition statement from STC. Many pages misnumbered. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
