Titolo	A discourse concerning the queries proposed by the House of Commons to the Assembly of Divines; [[electronic resource] ] : about the divine right of Church Government in answer to two main questions. First, whether is be expedient to the State and Church, that the Assembly of Divines should answer those questions yea or no? Secondly, in case to be expedient; how they should be answered satisfactorily both to the conscionable and unconscionable disputer of the matter. Shewing first, the necessity of giving an answeerr [sic]. Secondly, some necessary requisites to make that answer satisfactory to all, and without exception. // Written for the private satisfaction of a friend, anno Dom. 1646. And now published for more common use, by an unpartiall lover of truth and peace
