

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392171003316
Autore	N. T
Titolo	Very sad newes from Ireland [[electronic resource]] : two strong garrisons taken from the rebels: [brace] Mariborough Fort, and the Castle of Athlone. A thovsand Protestants, men women and children, at the mercy of the bloody rebels. Besides the losse of the Lord Dillon, Viscount Castlelon, Sir William Gilbert and his son, 4. ministers, and divers officers. With lists of their names, and particulars of the losses in either of the garisons, and the names of the chief rebels, and their places. A remonstrance of the Protestant clergy in Ireland, and the fortifying of Dublin by the Marquesse of Ormond. October 25. 1646. These papers concerning Ireland are printed and published according to order
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for N.S., anno Domini 1646
Descrizione fisica	[2], 6 p
Soggetti	Ireland History 1625-1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Consists of three items, the first of which is a letter signed on page 3: N.T. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018