

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392171703316
Autore	White Thomas <1593-1676.>
Titolo	The grounds of obedience and government. Being the best answer to all that has been lately written in defence of passive obedience and non resistance. By Father Thomas White, a Benedictine, father confessor to the Queen Mother Henrietta Maria [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed, and sold by A. Baldwin in Warwick-Lane, [1700?]
Edizione	[The third edition.]
Descrizione fisica	[16], 132 p
Soggetti	Government, Resistance to - England - Religious aspects Political science Political ethics
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Imprint date from Wing; A. Baldwin active in London from 1698 (cf. Plomer). Copy has MS. annotation on flyleaf, reading in part: "This book was written in defence of O. Cromwell's goverment ... and the design of the author was to persuade people in general, and the popish party in particular, to acquiesce in the new settlement, ... "; copy has print show-through. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018