

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNISA996392218003316 |
| Autore | Leicester Philip Sidney, Earl of, <1619-1698.> |
| Titolo | An armie for Ireland conducted by the Lord Lithe [Lisle], son to the right honourable, the Earle of Licester, Lord Deputy of Ireland [[electronic resource]] : being a vote of both houses in Parliament for the sending of a speedy ayd into Ireland consisting both of the Scottish and English army : speaking of the great feare that the city of Dublin hath been in and in what danger to be taken sundry times, but now most valiantly defended by the Scottish volunteers and the English army with an excellent copy of a letter sent from the Lord Moore to Sir William Baker in England : speaking of all the greevances and meseries of the Protestants whatsoever as also of all the bloody designes that the rebels intended to take the castle |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | London, : Printed for John Greensmith, 1642 |
| Descrizione fisica | [7] p |
| Altri autori (Persone) | Moore of Drogheda Charles Moore, Viscount, <1603-1643.> |
| Soggetti | Ireland History Rebellion of 1641 |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | Attributed to Philip Sidney, Earl of Leicester by Accessing Early English books, 1641-1700. Reproduction of original in Thomason Collection, British Library. |
| Sommario/riassunto | eebo-0158 |