Autore	Bolton Samuel <1606-1654.>
Titolo	The arraignment of error: or, A discourse serving as a curb to restrain the wantonnesse of mens spirits in the entertainment of opinions; [[electronic resource]] : and as a compasse, whereby we may sail in the search and finding of truth; distributed into six main questions. Quest. 1. How it may stand with Gods, with Satans, with a mans own ends, that there should be erroneous opinions? Quest. 2. What are the grounds of abounding errors? Quest. 3. Why so many are carried away with error? Quest. 4. Who those are that are in danger? Quest. 5. What are the examens, or the trials of opinions, and characters of truth? Quest. 6. What waies God hath left in his Word for the suppressing of error, and reducing of erroneous persons? Under which generall questions, many other necessary and profitable queries are comprized, discussed, and resolved. And in conclusion of all; some motives, and means, conducing to an happy accommodation of our present differences, are subjoynd. // By Samuel Bolton minister of the Word of God at Saviours-Southwark
