

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392253103316
Autore	Hamilton James Hamilton, Duke of, <1606-1649.>
Titolo	The declaration of Duke Hambleton at the head of his army [[electronic resource]] : upon his joyning with Maj. Gen. Langdale in the north of England, concerning His most Gracious and Dread Soveraign Charkes [sic] King of Great Brittain. Likewise Major Generall Langdales propositions to the Lord Duke, concerning the Kings Majesty, and the Dukes answer thereunto. And the resolution of the Scots Army, with the manner of their march, their trumpets sounding, drums beating, and colours displaying with this motto, For Religion, King and Kingdom. Also the Duke of Buckinghams representation to the Lord Major of London, and his declaration, concerning the Kings Majesty
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London], : Printed for the generall satisfaction of all true subjects, 1648
Descrizione fisica	[2], 6 p
Altri autori (Persone)	BuckinghamGeorge Villiers, Duke of, <1628-1687.>
Soggetti	Great Britain History Civil War, 1642 1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Place of publication from Wing. In fact only three letters, one signed on p.5: A.H. (i.e. James Hamilton), and two signed on p.6: G. Buckingham (i.e. George Villiers Buckingham). Annotation on Thomason copy: "July 9th". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018