

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392288203316
Titolo	A most worthy speech [[electronic resource] /] / spoken by the Right Honourable, and renowned soldier, Lieutenant General Lesley, to the Scottish army, at their marching over Tweed into Scotland, wherein is propounded severall propositions concerning the kingdome of England, and the covenant. Together with the gallant answer of the officers and soldiers in the Scottish army; and their taking of a new oath, and breaking the standards of every regiment, upon their advance into their own kingdome. Appointed to be printed, and published for generall satisfaction of the kingdome of England, Feb. 26
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Prinred [sic] for James Douglas., 1647
Descrizione fisica	[8] p
Altri autori (Persone)	NewarkDavid Leslie, Baron, <d. 1682.> W. C SimpsonF. <fl. 1647.>
Soggetti	Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Not in fact Lesley's speech and the Scots army's answer; 2 letters, the first dated and signed: Nottingham, Feb. 19. W.C.; the second dated and signed: Holmby-house, Feb, 22. F. Simpson. Signatures: [A]. Annotation on Thomason copy: "feb: 26 1646"; the 7 in imprint date crossed out. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018