Note generali	Running title reads: A godly and famous sermon made in the yeere. 1388. On Luke xvi.2. Signatures: A-D. Imperfect; Cropped at head, with loss of first line of title, and partial loss of running titles. Reproduction of the original in the Bodleian Library. Attributed in several 15th-century MS. sources to Thomas Wimbledon. John Foxe, and editions of the sermon from 1582 onwards, also attribute it to an R. Wimbeldon, which has been expanded without apparent justification to Robert or Richard Wimbledon (Halkett & Laing).
