

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392424403316
Titolo	A gallant victory obtained by the Lord Inchiqueen against the rebels; at Capogh-Queen in Ireland [[electronic resource]] : Which garison is taken from the rebels, that was kept by 120 officers and souldiers; 4 peece of ordnance taken, 150 armes, 3 barrels of powder, 50 horse, and good store of ammunition and provisions. Also, sad newes from Dublin: where the rebels with Preston, have taken the strong castle of Caterlagh, 3 peece of ordnance, 100 arms, and 160 officers and souldiers; men, women, and children, forced to Dublin for relief. With the votes of the rebels at their councill of warre, concerning their further designes against Dublin
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for W.S., 1647
Descrizione fisica	[2], 6 p
Altri autori (Persone)	MooreFrancis <d. 1662.>
Soggetti	Ireland History 1625-1649
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Consists of a letter dated and signed: Dublin the 7. of May, 1647. Francis Moore; and "The votes of the councill of warre". Annotation on Thomason copy: "May 17th". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018