

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392468903316
Autore	Reyner Edward <1600-1668.>
Titolo	The twelve wonders of England [[electronic resource] ] : being a strange and wonderful relation of the death of Mr. Parrey, an inn-keeper, living at the sign of the Bell at Temple-bar; and the manner how twelve serpents vv ere voided from him a little before his death on Thursday last, some having heads like toads and horses, and others like neuts and dogs, to the great admiration of all that shall read the ensuing subject. Together vvith a narrative of his life and death, his memento and character to all Christians; and other memorable examples of most strange and wonderful prodigies
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for G. Horton, 1655
Descrizione fisica	8 p
Soggetti	Medicine Excretion - Folklore Serpents
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "August 11th". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018