

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392518803316
Titolo	By the King. Whereas vve are giuen to vnderstand, that since our entrie unto this kingdome, many of our subiects of our realme of Scotland [[electronic resource] ] : and some also of England (who by ancient lawes and customes of this realme are bound to bring all such goods and merchandizes as passe betweene the two realmes, either to the citie of Carlile, or towne of Barwicke (if the same be caried by land) .
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Imprinted at London, : By Robert Barker, printer to the Kings most excellent Maiestie., anno 1603
Descrizione fisica	1 sheet ([1] p.)
Altri autori (Persone)	James, King of England, <1566-1625.>
Soggetti	Customs administration - England
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Title from opening lines of text. Requiring that customs be paid on all goods crossing the border between England and Scotland. Cf. STC. Dated at end: Wilton, the fourth day of Nouember, in the first yeere of our reigne of England, France and Ireland, and in the seuen and thirtieth of Scotland. Reproduction of original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018