Autore	Boys William
Titolo	The narrative of Mr. William Boys, citizen of London [[electronic resource]] : faithfully relating what came to his knowledge concerning the late horrid Popish Plot, and the death of Sir Edmund-Bury Godfrey, by his acquaintance with, and attendance upon Mr. Miles Prance, before, and after his being taken and imprisoned, wherein many things not yet discovered to the world, relating to the truth of the Kings evidence, and the guilt charged upon Philiberd Vernatti (formerly servant to the Lord Bellasis) Gerrard, Kelle, and Lusan priests; all fled for the said fact is made manifest. Published for the conviction of all gain-sayers, and the vindication of the said Mr. Boys from the aspersion the Popish party would have cast upon him, for his faithfulness in finding out their divellish designs, made evident by the many snares laid for him
