

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392787403316
Titolo	A wonderfull discoverie of a terrible plot against Huti [sic]: by the designes of the Lord Digby, many papists, and others, of the malignant party [[electronic resource]] : Declaring the manner how the two ships loaden with great store of ammunition of armes, came under a pretended colour of merchants ships from the Indies, and how they would have executed their plot that night against Hull. Also how by the providence of God, they were discovered and apprehended. Lastly, the true relation, how five men in disguise would have entred into Hull as being a committee appointed by the Parliament to sit at York. Having 100. horse and 500 foot lying in ambush, to have seized upon the towne as soon as the gates had beene opened. With Irish depositions by His Majesties commission, and an extract of a letter sent from Isidores Coll. in Rome, 4. January 1641
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for Thomas Powell, 1642
Descrizione fisica	[8] p
Altri autori (Persone)	O'ConnorBonaventura PuttockRoger
Soggetti	Hull (England) History Early works to 1800 Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	"An abstract of the depositions.." signed on p. [7] by Roger Puttocke and six others. "An extract of a letter written 4. January 1641." is by Bonaventura O'Connor-- Cf. Wing P4251. Signatures: [A]. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018