

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392797203316
Autore	Willis Thomas <1619 or 20-1692.>
Titolo	A word in season, for a warning to England: or a prophecy of perillous times open'd and apply'd [[electronic resource]] : Wherein the signes of bad times, and the means of making the times good, are represented as the great concernment of all good Christians in this present age. First exhibited in a sermon preached in the Abby at Westminster, July 5. 1659. and since enlarged and published. / / By Thomas VVilles, M.A. minister of the Gospel, in the city of London
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed by Tho. Ratcliff, for Tho. Underhill, at the Blew Anchor in Pauls Church-yard., 1659
Descrizione fisica	[18], 430, [20] p
Soggetti	Christian life Conduct of life
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Phrase at head of title transliterated from Greek. With an additional title page, engraved: A prophecy of perillous times. The first leaf bears verses on the engraved title. The last ten leaves contain "The authour's advertisement", errata, and "A synopsis of the foregoing treatise in six tables". Annotation on Thomason copy: "nouember". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018