

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392825703316
Autore	Woodward Ezekias <1590-1675.>
Titolo	A good souldier, maintaining his militia, and posturing himself, as the servants of the Lord, now and in all ages have postured the kingdomes; [[electronic resource] ] : wherein the right-hand of the Lord with his servants directing their way, and blessing their worke; and all His ordinances, fasting, praying, preaching, &c. unto the nation; is declared as mightily, as it was by the resurrection from the dead, whether we respect a nation or a man only. Here is a register of Gods blessings and Satans curses; a record of the (megaleia,) the great and admiral salvations, which God has wrought for the (Righteous) nation, and the man there: And of the terrible things Hee has done against His adversaries these foure last yeares. Humbly presented to the House of Parliament and Assembly of Divines. With a discovery of the loyall convert, that he is quite turned from his God, his King and his kingdome: a most disloyall person to all three
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London], : Printed by order, [by George Miller dwelling in Black-Friers, ], on a day of rebuke and blasphemy : and in the yeare of earnest expectation after an expected end, 1644
Descrizione fisica	[10], 154 p
Soggetti	Church and state - England Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Religious aspects Early works to 1800 Great Britain Church history 17th century Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	"(megaleia)" on line 15 of first title page is in Greek lettering. "A prospective glasse" is identified as Wing W379 on UMI microfilm set "Early English Books, 1641-1700" and as Thomason E.53[1] on UMI microfilm set "Thomason Tracts". Annotation on Thomason copy E.46[7]: first title page: "By Hez: Woodward"; "May. 8th."; second title page: "May. 8th."; on Thomason E. 53[1]: "June 28 1644". Reproduction of the original in the British Library. Thomason E.53[1] is a fragment of E.46[7]. Drophead title begins "A prospective glasse." It begins on signature x.

