

|                         |   |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Record Nr.           | UNISA996392839403316  |
| Autore                  | Hammon George   |
| Titolo                  | Truth and innocency, prevailing against error and insolency [[electronic resource] ] : wherein is examined and discovered these following particulars. I. Whether Baptism be sprinkling or dipping. II. Whether the subject to be baptised, be infants or believers. III. Whether the punishment of original sin, be the first or second death. IV. Whether man be in an immortal estate before the resurrection. V. As touching the resurrection, whether these bodies of ours shall rise again & be made immortal, or whether it will be another body. VI. Of Gods love to the whole lump of mankind make known. VII. Of the personal raign of our blessed saviour upon Earth ... by way of answer to Mr. Hezekiah Holland, sometimes preacher at Sutton-Valence in Kent ... a second part: wherein is proved, that all the laws and statutes of King Jesus ... are practicable ... with many objections answered. It being an answer to one Mr. Simon Hendon of Benenden in Kent. // By George Hammon, Pastor to the church of Christ in Biddenden, Kent |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa      | London, : Printed for the author, in the year, 1660   |
| Descrizione fisica      | [12], 116 [i.e. 216] p  |
| Soggetti                | Sin, OriginalResurrectionGod - LoveBaptism  |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese   |
| Formato                 | Materiale a stampa  |
| Livello bibliografico   | Monografia  |
| Note generali           | Partly in reply to an untraced tract by Hezekiah Holland.Page 216 misnumbered 116.Annotation on Thomason copy: "May 2d".Reproduction of the original in the British Library.  |
| Sommario/riassunto      | eebo-0018   |