

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392866503316
Titolo	Bevvare of false prophets [[electronic resource]] : or, a true relation of the examination, and confesion, of Roalond Bateman, of St. Mary's at Newington in Southwark, who was apprehended and now lies in prison for saying if a peace were not between this and Whitsunday he would pluck some of the Lord in Parliament, out by the eares and stab'd them, also that he said he is the son of God, and if they put him to death he should and would rise againe the third day, and that for a certaine he hath fasted from the 13 of May, till the 7 of lune, and so continues to Newprison at Clarkenwell
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed by John Hammond, [1644]
Descrizione fisica	[8] p
Soggetti	Prophecies
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Attributed to John Taylor in the Wrenn catalogue, where it is dated 1638. Date of publication from Wing. Annotation on Thomason copy: "June 12th 1644". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018