

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392869503316
Autore	Crofton Zachary <1625 or 6-1672.>
Titolo	Malice against ministry manifested by the plain and modest plea and defence of Zach. Crofton [[electronic resource]] : minister of the Gospel at Buttolphs Aldgate London unto the false and frivolons [sic] charge of Tho. Harrison, and John Levet against him exhibited unto the commissioners for the ejection of ignorant, scandalous and insufficient ministers, &c. within the City of London. In which you have his past credit attested. Present plea demurred. Particular articles duly and distinctly answered
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed for James Nuthal, and are to be sold at his house in the Minories next door to the Dolphin, and book-sellers shops, 1657
Descrizione fisica	[4], 27, [1] p
Soggetti	Clergy - Legal status, laws, etc
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Mary Cadman, Crofton's maid, had publicly accused him of whipping her too enthusiastically. Crofton had earlier defended himself under the pseudonym Alethes Noctroff. Annotation on Thomason copy: "10 Decemb:". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018