Titolo	A fuller answer to a treatise written by Doctor Ferne, entituled The resolving of conscience upon this question [[electronic resource]] : whether upon this supposition, or case (the King will not defend, but is bent to subvert religion, lawes, and liberties) subjects may with good conscience make resistance. VVherein the originall frame, and fundamentalls of this government of England, together with those two texts of Scripture are sufficiently cleered. Viz. Rom. 13. 1. Let every soule be subject unto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God, the powers that be, are ordained of God. 1. Pet. 2. 13. Submit your selves to every ordinance of man for the Lords sake, whether it be to the King as Supreame. // Done by another author
