Titolo	A serious admonition to those Members of Parilament[sic] that sate alone without the secluded members [[electronic resource]] : With another to those souldiers yet living, that secluded the major part of the House of Commons, setting up the rest, whom afterwards they twice dissolved. Which is intended, as to move them to repentance for what is past; so to prevent the like attempts of them, or others for the time to come. Together with a vindication of the Presbyterians from those aspersions and prejudices, which by their means have been cast upon hem by the tongues and pens, and raised against them in the minds of those of the other extream / By a minister of the Gospel
