

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392891203316
Autore	R. F (Richard Farnworth), <d. 1666.>
Titolo	The brazen serpent lifted up on high, or truth cleared and above the deceit exalted, and as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness: even so must the son of man be lifted up, that whosoever believeth in him, should not perish but have eternall life. Joh. 3. 14. 15 [[electronic resource]] : Here is also laid down in this treatise something, concerning election and and [sic] predestination, which is so much spoken of, and how they may know their election, something concerning Christ being the way to the Father; and how, and concerning Christ, the mediatur of the new covenants, and the end of the old, and tythes are ended. ... Lastly, here is part of a dispute, held between two chief priests, and two men that came and met with them, and the people at Chadwitch in Worcestershire; ... to clear the truth form accusations, held forth by those men that the world scornfully calleth Quakers. Written in Worcestershire, the beginning of the first moneth called March. 1655
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London., : Printed for Giles Calvert at the Black spread-Eagle at the west end of Pauls., 1655
Descrizione fisica	[4], 59, [1] p
Soggetti	Society of Friends Election (Theology) Predestination
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	To the reader signed: R.F., i.e. Richard Farnworth. Annotation on Thomason copy: "7. Aprill 7"; second 7 written over what looks like a "6". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018