

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392965403316
Autore	Hall George <1612?-1668.>
Titolo	The black and terrible vvarning piece: or, a scourge to Englands rebellion [[electronic resource] ] : Truly representing, the horrible iniquity of the times; the dangerous proceedings of the ranters, and the holding of no Resurrection by the shakers, in Yorkshire and elsewhere. With the several judgements of the most high and eternal Lord God, upon all usurpers, who deny His law, and His truth; and the manner how 130 children were taken away by the devil, and never seen no more; and divers others taken, rent, torn, and cast up and down from room to room, by strange and dreadfull spirits, appearing in the shapes of, a black boar, a roaring lyon, an English statesman, and a Roman fryer. Extracted out of the elaborate works of Bishop Hall, and Sir Kenelm Digby; and published for general satisfaction, to all Christian princes, states, and common-wealths in Europe
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed for George Horton, 1653
Descrizione fisica	[2], 6 p
Altri autori (Persone)	DigbyKenelm, Sir, <1603-1665.>
Soggetti	God - Wrath Ranters Great Britain History Puritian Revolution, 1642-1600 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "Nou. 29." Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018