Autore	Vicars John <1579 or 80-1652.>
Titolo	Babylons beautie: or The Romish-Catholicks svweet-heart [[electronic resource]] : Containing a most lively and lovely description of Romes cardinall vertues and rarest endowments, with her apostolicall benedictions on kings and kingdomes, under her tyrannicall subjection; briefly and bravely depainted, in their native-splendour. A worke most seasonably composed for the revived eternall shame of all the mad-maintainers and idolizers of Romes great Diana, so cried-up and fought for, now a daies, by papists, atheists, and formall malignant Protestants. // By John Vicars
